

CSU | THEATRE

Want to learn about South African arts and culture? How the performing arts reflect, challenge, and shape culture? Meet some of the world's most fabulous theatremakers and worldshakers?

Join Dr. Megan Lewis, Director of CSU Theatre, for the 2023 Arts and Culture in South Africa education abroad course!

WHERE: Johannesburg, Makhanda & Cape Town, South Africa

WHAT: In this summer faculty-led program, the performing arts will offer students a lens through which to examine questions of social justice, race, class and gender politics, history, language, memory, and the role of the arts in our global world. Focused around the National Arts Festival that takes place over ten days in Makhanda, South Africa, students experience the second largest theatre festival in the world (outside Edinburgh in Scotland) and the largest in the southern hemisphere. See new plays and cutting edge international performances! Meet playwrights, actors, artists and activists! Engage with, and reflect upon, the historic, sociopolitical, and creative contexts of the work we see!

WHEN: Summer 2023 – Online module in May/June plus in-country travel June 19-July 7, 2023

Students complete a 10-module online course and then travel to South Africa for 3 weeks. We visit cultural sites and museums in Johannesburg to study the sociopolitical and historical context of South Africa before heading to Makhanda for “10 days of amazing” at the National Arts Festival. Mid-week we spend a day on safari! And we end our journey in Cape Town, where we see additional visual and performing arts, explore various cultural sites and museums, and spend a day in South Africa’s gorgeous wine country!

Counts for 6 credits - counts as a full load for summer so you can apply Financial Aid.
