Colorado State University's Musical Theatre Program — an exciting new star in undergraduate arts education for the region—invites students to participate in a rigorous two-week intensive.

Led by CSU's award-winning faculty and distinguished Broadway veterans, this program offers aspiring performers the rare opportunity to refine their technique while cultivating an authentic creative voice. Pairing professional excellence with academic rigor, this intensive strengthens skills that not only prepare students for success in the industry but also highlights CSU's role as a leader in musical theatre training.

THIS YEAR'S GUEST ARTIST:

RODNEY HICKS

Actor, Playwright, and Screenwriter (Subject to change).

Rodney is a Broadway powerhouse, originating roles in Rent, Come from Away, The Scottsboro Boys, and more. Known for his artistry and excellence, he brings decades of stage and screen experience. As a guest artist, Rodney inspires the next generation with insight, passion, and heart.
